THE ROBIN MAUND CUP SHOW AND SALE

Cows to £1980      Heifers £2100

A much improved line up for today's Show and Sale which was Judged this month by regular supporter Mr Alan Tomlinson of Cheshire. He awarded his champion and the Robin Maund Cup to a fresh calved cow from Messrs J R Jones & Co's wonderful 2nd Lactation Cow, She had freshened on the 1st March 2019 and giving 35kg of milk, A well Balanced cows with plenty of capacity she was purchased by Bowdler Farms Ltd.

Pedigree Cows were topped at £1780 this time for Knowlesmere Credit Papoose giving 48kg of milk she stood 2nd in the pre-sale show and sold for £1780 again to Bowdler Farms Ltd, the same price achieved for the 3rd Prize cow on the day From J R Jones & Co, purchased by Evan Ellis.

Champion (Cow)- £1980 J R Jones & Co
Reserve (Heifer)- £2100 EB & P Boughey

COWS

1st - J R Jones & Co, 2nd Lact £1980
2nd - A & J Whittaker, 2nd Lact £1780
3rd - J R Jones & Co, 2nd Lact £1780

HEIFERS

1st - EB & P Boughey £2100
2nd - M J & E Hughes £1920
3rd - S Landy £1950

The Heifers were a superb show of quality with the top price achieved for the reserved champion "Granchester Uno Berylina" from EV Boughey who was selling in Shrewsbury for the first time, sold 2 weeks fresh giving 33kg she flew to £2100 for Les Trow of Emstry, Other Quality Heifers included the second prize winner from Mark Hughes, again fresh giving over 30kg this heifer was sold for £1920. Another first time vendor Mr Landy from Stoke on Trent sold his fresh calved Laurthority daughter for an impressive £1950!

There were buyer present for all shapes and grades today those hitting the top grade flew to their prices, while the second quality look a sensible price in the current market conditions.

CALVES (103)

AUCTIONEER: STUART RICHARDS

A mixed trade today with the very best seller well but the general lack of quality in the rest didn't seem to find favour.

Best Blues from Messrs Wigley of New Hall sold well to £335 and a few smaller examples from Richard Bowdler topped out at £302 with others around that £275 mark. Lims from the Griffiths of Wingfield House were up to £190 whilst Sims from Mr Lewis of Woodcote Farm were making £180. Best Herefords from Mr Ainsworth of Brandwood Farm made £192 but smaller native sorts were hard to shift. Top Friesians from Messrs Harrison, the Pymys sold to £100 with another from the Wigleys to £60. Processors up to £45 this week.

It was the same story in the heifers with the best Sims from Mr Crowther topping things at £240 with Blues from Richard Bowdler just behind at £235. Well grown Lims from the Harrisons sold to £210 with Herefords from Mr Ainsworth up to £150.

A nice selection of weanlings to finish with some belting Angus steers and heifers from John Banks selling to £415 and £375 respectfully, a nice charollais heifer from Messrs Dale to £415 and 5-6 month blues from the Harrisons up to £390 a piece.

Another 50 plus quality well grown blues expected for next week so it will be another week not to be missed.

STORE SHEEP (335)

AUCTIONEER: NICK GRIFFITHS

Another similar entry this week, with plenty of buyers up the allies looking for couples now that we are seeing some decent spring weather.

Not really the quality about this week, with plenty of plain ewes with some cross bred type lambs. Good quality aged Texel ewes sold to £161 from Joe Hamer with twin lambs at foot, with FC Millward selling a strong single ewe and lamb to £154. A good run of halfbred ewes and lambs from EJ Hayward & sons sold to £151 for a nice double with Charles Selling his usual mule outfits to £150 for nearly doubles.

Plenty of demand, for all qualities in Shrewsbury. We already have several consignments booked for next Tuesday. Please let us know if you have any to sell.

CULL EWES & RAMS (198)

AUCTIONEER: JAMES EVANS

Another modest entry of Cull Ewes and Rams this week proving for another strong trade.

There was not enough good quality Sheep to meet Buyers demand with plenty of good quality Cull Ewes on offer selling for over £100 per head. Buyers are still looking for heavier sorted animals. The top price of the day went to a pen of two good quality Texel Ewes selling for £134.00 per head.

Poor quality sorts aren't quite ringing the bell with some of the Buyers.
