An abundance of youth was forward today at Shrewsbury, but the quality was present throughout the fresh cows and heifers. Fresh cows today averaged nearly £1840, being topped by an exceptional 2nd Calver from Griffiths & Spearing, Cleobury Mortimer who had already given 10,593kg in her first lactation with an immaculate cell count of just 26, she sold for £2400 and was closely followed by another young fresh cow from the same home at £2150. This was just ahead of WJ Jones & Co, Farlow with their 2nd calver making £1980.

Onto the heifers, with a great show of quality fresh heifers on offer this week, who were a credit to our vendors. The buyer demand for youth was carried forward this week from last week's show and sale, with 9 of today's heifers at £2000 and above. Leading the trade today was A & C Drinkall, Wettenhall with Chapman Rory Akke, being calved just shy of 3-weeks this heifer possessed both style and substance, giving 30kg and rising from a pedigree backed with multiple VG and EX cows, she sold for £2350. This just pipped the heifer from Griffiths & Spearing, Cleobury Mortimer, a great young heifer who was well promoted by her stablemates topping the cow section, she made £2320.

Also of note, was Wolson Makeje Sally 2 from AD & RM Thomas, Lutterworth this great heifer showed her own quality with a pedigree to match, being from 5 generations of VG and EX cows, she made £2250. This was just ahead of Aliann Sidekick Caramel, who came forward from B & L Whitfield, Wolverley this young heifer came from a star-studded pedigree of 10 generations of VG and EX cows, she made £2220.

A pair of pedigree in calf heifers, due in mid-august sold well today, to top at £1350 for Hillsummer Altaamulet Anne, followed by her herdmate Hillsummer Brekem Lundy, who sold for £1200.

The final category to this report was a group of 3-month-old calves from Sansaw Dairies, Hadnall, all commercial cross-breeds, these sold in two groups and topped at £110 a life for a group of 4.

We look forward to another great lineup at Shrewsbury next week! Please get in touch with auctioneer Jonny Dymond 07803 412617 or Dairy Secretary Jane Arrell 07394 479668 or email dairy@hallsgb.com. Thank you for your support in the dairy section.
