

REPORT FOR THE STORE CATTLE THURSDAY 28TH NOVEMBER 2024

163 Store Cattle

Steers to £2020 Heifers to £1770

A flying trade for a reduced entry of Store Cattle today with Buyers aplenty around the ring eager to purchase from the get go. Prices soared to £2010 (675kg) for a Charolais Bullock, part of an outstanding run of strong Cattle from Paul Mason of Ford. This was followed at £1860 (660kg) for a mountain of a Blue Steer from G E & D W Windsor. Some good Blonde Bullocks today sold to £1775 (615kg) for W S Powell & Sons. In the premiums Steers sold to 329ppk for 385kg Limousin Bullocks from M G & M N Hanselman.

Heifers were a roaring trade, peaking at £1770 (590kg) again for a Charolais from Paul Mason who also sold a trio the top Angus at £1635 (590kg). A trio of stretchy Blonde Heifers from P D Evans flew to £1575 (530kg). In the premiums a pen of 4 superb Limousin Heifers from W G Bright of the Robury Ring achieved 331ppk returning at £1455. Plenty of Cattle selling for close and over the 300ppk today including many Native bred sorts which dominated the entry.

Our next sale and final Store Cattle sale for 2024 will be held on Thursday 12th December. Entries are requested for this very strong trade

Halls were delighted to be favoured with the Second Annual Production Sale of Stabiliser Cattle from Messrs Cherrington. Autumn Calved Cows with Calves at foot peaked at £1740 for a 6 year old Cow with a Bull Calf at foot selling to a Purchaser from Hereford. Cows with Heifer Calves peaked at £1650 for a 5 year old Cow. Prices for Cows and Calves started at £1280. In Calf Cows due in Spring 2025 peaked at £1680 (twice) both 5 year old Cows selling to returning Purchasers from the 2023 Sale. Overall a highly successful sale with all Cows averaging £1400.
